

CUSTER COUNTY

Office of the County Commissioners

To: Whom It May Concern

From: Custer County, Oklahoma

In re: Custer County Zoning Regulations

This letter is to certify that Custer County DOES NOT have any zoning or fire safety and health regulations, except any governed by State Statutes or any city ordinance in Custer County, Oklahoma. There are also no building permits required in unincorporated areas of Custer County.

However, please keep in mind that a permit is required for any encroachments to or on county right-of-ways and payment of applicable fees will be necessary. You can find application forms for these permits at <http://www.custer.okcounties.org> under Forms/Permits on the left-hand menu. (Form C001)

Also, Development Permits are required if your project is located within a special flood hazard area. This information is available in the Custer County Commissioner's Office in the Courthouse at Arapaho, Oklahoma.
